1. We have heard Mrs.Patil the learned Advocate for the applicant who is seeking bail by suspending the order of sentence which is under challenge in Criminal Appeal No.284 of 2006.

2. We have perused the reasoning set out by the trial Court as well as the affidavit filed by the Senior Inspector of Police attached to the Special Branch-1, CID, Mumbai, opposing the bail application. The prosecution case is based on the testimony of PW-4 Mohammed Afzal Mohd.Subrati Khan as well as the evidence of the Medical officer.

3. We do not find it justify to release the applicant on bail pending the appeal and hence, the application is rejected.

4. The learned Advocate for the applicant undertakes to furnish private paper book within a period of 4 weeks and if so done, the private paper book be duly certified by the registry on the basis of the record & proceedings which has already been received.

5. List Criminal Appeal No.284 of 2006 for final hearing if the paper book is ready, in the week commencing from 23.4.2007.
